

BAILEY, GEORGE HAMPTON (District Number 97, Dorchester County) REPUBLICAN

Retired for Carolina Low Country Co.; residing at 224 Country Club Blvd., St. George, SC; born March 24th. 1937 in Charleston, SC; parents were George Hampton Bailey and Inez (Horne) Bailey; Richmond Academy, Lee Institute, and Honorary Doctorate Degree from College of Charleston; married Ann Brown Bailey on July 30th. 1964; five children, Lynette, George, Jr., Carol, Greg, and John; seven grandchildren; former member of West Ashley, North Charleston, and St. George Jaycees; Past-President of St. Andrews Lions Club, Charleston; Mason; Shriner; Omer Safety Patrol; American Red Cross; SC Law Enforcement Officers Association; Clemson President Advisory Board; JCI Senator; Past Board member of Tri-County Chamber of Commerce; member of St. George Rotary Club; St. George Lion Club; St. George Businessmen Club; Past-President Dixie Youth Baseball; affiliate member Dorchester County Soil and Water Conservation; member of Memorial Baptist Church; selected as one of Ten Outstanding Young Men of South Carolina; selected to Personalities of the South; Manufactured Housing Inst. Award of SC 1989; Industry Appreciation Award SC Association of Realtors 1990; Hammer & Trowel Award SC Home Builders Association 1991; SC Chapter of American Inst. Of Architects 1997; Awarded ORDER OF PALMETTO by Governor Carroll Campbell 1992; Champion of Housing Award, Home Builders Assn. of SC, 1997; Life member of SC Building Codes Officials; SC Association of Realtors "Legislator of the Year" 1999; Good Soldier Award by SC Retail Merchants Assn. 1999; Pinnacle Award by SC Assn. General Contractors 2003; military Marine Reserves, 53rd. Special Infantry Co. Previously served in the House from Sept. 4, 1984-2000 and 2003-2006.